

MASS. HS30.2 : L47/2

UMASS/AMHERST

312066 0282 3886 2

LEAD POISONING PREVENTION CHECK

Every year in Massachusetts, over 1500 children under six are identified as lead poisoned. More go undetected and untreated. Most children have no symptoms. Early signs of lead poisoning are easily mistaken for a cold, fatigue, or emotional problems. Check your environment for lead hazards.

To learn more, call or write:

Massachusetts Department of Public Health
Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program
305 South Street Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts 02130

1-800-532-9571 OR 1-617-522-3700

